DEEP WATERS

'Ike Pono: To Search for Righteousness

Three individuals, each with their own musical history, diversity, and cultural background, come together to create a unique upbeat approach to sound and harmony, bordering Hawaiian contemporary, yet still maintaining the traditional Hawaiian sounds. Formed in November 1997 and embracing the name 'Ike Pono, to perpetuate their common threads of love for God and love for what is Hawaiian, ever pursuing the righteousness of both.

DEEP WATERS: The fluidity of water, cool and clear, allowing movement in any direction or flow with a certain buoyancy to hold one in its embrace. 'Ike Pono has come to a new chapter, where free flow of ideas, understanding and love of music has transcended to a personal level like that of flowing in deep waters.
